ORDER

GREGORY H. WOODS, United States District Judge:

As discussed during the December 7, 2015 conference, the plaintiff is directed to file a letter with the Court describing whether she intends to seek leave to file an amended complaint before the defendants' file their anticipated motion to dismiss. If the plaintiff anticipates that she will seek leave to file such an amended complaint, the letter should set forth the plaintiff's proposal regarding the timing for the filing of that motion.

The defendants' motion to dismiss is due by March 7, 2016; the plaintiff's opposition is due four weeks after the date of service of the defendants' motion; and the defendants' reply, if any, is due two weeks after the date of service of the plaintiff's opposition.

The defendants' motion to stay discovery until the disposition of the motion to dismiss is due by December 19, 2015; the plaintiff's opposition is due ten days after the date of service of the defendants' motion; and the defendants' reply, if any, is due five days after the date of service of the plaintiff's opposition.

SO ORDERED.
